

SUITCASE STORIES

Suitcase Stories® is a signature program of the International Institute of New England that raises the profile of refugees and immigrants while strengthening community through the art of storytelling.

IINE offers a suite of 'Suitcase' programming including large mainstage productions, custom showcases, 'Suitcase Stories Unpacked' storytelling workshops, and podcast.

SUITCASE STORIES

IN SCHOOLS

- Introduce students to diverse voices
- Invite youth to share their immigration stories
- Custom programming for middle and high schools, or colleges
- School showcases
- Storytelling workshops

IN THE WORKPLACE

- Learn about New England's diverse workforce
- Identify immigration stories within your business
- Well-suited for diversity and inclusion initiatives
- Onsite showcases and education forums
- Storytelling workshops

IN THE COMMUNITY

- Foster welcoming and inclusive communities
- Raise the profile of local immigrants and refugees
- Perfect for faith institutions, local association groups, arts programs, etc.
- Mainstage shows and local showcases, and storytelling workshops

ABOUT IINE

Founded in Lowell, MA, in 1918, the International Institute of New England (IINE) is one of the oldest and largest social service organizations for new Americans in the region. Each year, we serve nearly 2,000 refugee, asylee, and immigrant clients across our three sites in Boston and Lowell, MA, and Manchester, NH.

International Institute of
New England

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:
Cheryl Hamilton, Creator and Curator
chamilton@iine.org
617.695.9990
suitcasestories.org

TELL YOUR STORY

Everyone is touched by immigration.

Want to become a Suitcase storyteller?

No experience necessary.

Email chamilton@iine.org to learn more.